Cynthia Young, Choral Director

Cynthia has founded and directed community choirs around the world, including Les Voix de Laafi in Ouagadougou, Burkina Faso; The Eland St. Ensemble in Pretoria, South Africa; International Voices in Libreville, Gabon; and Ankara A-Cappella in Ankara, Turkey. Cynthia is thrilled to be continuing this work with the Arlington Community Chorus, where she is in her second season as director. Cynthia is the Music Director at the Unitarian Universalist Church in Reston and is a private voice teacher. She is also the founder and director of Bella Voce, an Arlington-based women's a-cappella ensemble. Cynthia holds a Master of Arts degree in music from The American University and a Bachelor of Arts degree in music from Wake Forest University. Cynthia has two daughters and is married to bass singer David Young, a U.S. foreign service officer.

Diane Carsten-Pelak, Piano Accompanist

Diane grew up in Michigan and holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in music and religion from Kalamazoo College and a Master of Music degree in piano performance from Western Michigan University. Since 1986, she has lived in the D.C. area where she is a school accompanist at the Potomac School and is a frequent accompanist at other schools and churches in the area. Diane and her husband, Steven, have four children and live in McLean.

Special thanks to Arlington Community Learning Coordinator Raul Matos, Washington-Liberty High School Principal Gregg Robertson, Kenmore Middle School Principal David McBride, Arlington Community Chorus librarian Victoria Metz and other chorus member volunteers who helped with MuseScore notation, rehearsal set-up, publicity, and social activities, including Chuck Kipp, Danielle Cornwall, Will Hiram, Patricia Ceppi, Andrew Pozda, David Young, Cheryl Moore, Florence Olsen, Ryan Murphy, and Maria Yang.
